Who We Are

The Liberation Project Partnership is an extension of Unlock What's Inside You, Inc. a registered South Carolina Public Charity nonprofit organization serving women impacted by psychological incarceration due to domestic violence, incarcerated young men and their children based in Florence South Carolina and dedicated to financially supporting the mission and vision of the corporation by providing serves, training, and resources to women impacted by psychological incarceration due to domestic abuse which is directly linked to Heart Disease; incarcerated young men and their children in South Carolina.

The nonprofit organization, Unlock What's Inside You, Inc. was launched by Divine Connection Network Association, LLC CEO Dr. Doreen Lettsome Reid in December 2023 due to the great need to provide psychological health and wellness to families which became more evident since Divine Connection Network, LLC began in 2009 to educate, exhort, and execute strategies for women in business, incarcerated young men and at-risk girls. As a result over 500+ youth have been impacted by services, 20+ women have launched businesses, and the network has a global presence reaching the United Kingdom, U.S. Virgin Islands, Jamaica and beyond. Now families are able to receive awareness, education, advocacy, training, resources, and services for their psychological health and wellness through our nonprofit organization.

What We Do

As an extension of Unlock What's Inside You, Inc. The Liberation Project Partnership achieves its goals by providing services, training, and resources to provide psychological health and wellness to families:

- Confident Woman Incubator Virtual Experiences are free to women in the community.
- Confident Women Rise: Wise Women Win Conferences provide awareness, education, advocacy to participants impacted by psychological incarceration due to domestic abuse which is directly related to Heart Disease at an economically friendly cost.
- Confident Woman Incubator Health & Wellness Program is a subscription based service provided for women that desire to start the self-discovery journey to be liberated from psychological incarceration; all proceeds benefit the financial stability of the nonprofit organization to continue to provide services, training, resources at an economically friendly cost to participants.
- Confident Women Rise: Wise Women Win GALA is an annual fundraising event designed to bring awareness / education during Domestic Abuse/Violence month and to spark community advocacy and services.
- B.O.W (Boldly Overcoming Weapons) of Incarceration is our child advocacy program designed to bring JOY to CHILDREN ages (2-5) impacted by their fathers incarceration; during CHRISTMAS children may receive a GIFT through our collaboration with TOYS FOR TOTS and/or other organizations.
- Connecting Men In Business with Today's Youth is our workforce development program provided by various sponsors designed to connect professional business men to incarcerated young men to provide mentorship and guidance at FREE to participants.

As a partner of LIBERATION your donations are directed toward two basic categories: improving the health and wellness of families and to build the financial stability of the nonprofit organization which includes services, training, resources, and organizational operating cost.
